

Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

Monday - 17 March 1952

- - - - -

STATINTL 1. In accordance with my memorandum of 26 February to DD/A, Subject: [REDACTED] I briefed Congressman Gwinn on 17 March regarding the background of the [REDACTED] case, and urged STATINTL
STATINTL ✓ that the case be given no publicity and that it was inadvisable for the [REDACTED] to pursue private means in attempting to effect release of their son. I also emphasized the CIA security aspects of the case.
STATINTL (cc - [REDACTED]; Assistant Deputy (I&S).

STATINTL 2. I informed Mr. Meloy, Executive Secretary of the Loyalty Review Board, that he had recently forwarded a loyalty case to CIA which would have to be handled with great delicacy for security reasons.
STATINTL ✓ [REDACTED]
STATINTL [REDACTED] I asked Mr. Meloy to consider the most secure way in which this case could be handled and he promised to consider all possibilities, and advise me as to how he suggested we proceed.

STATINTL ✓ 3. Mr. Berger, Special Assistant to Mutual Security Director
Harriman, forwarded the proposed exchange of letters between Mr.
Harriman and the President and the appropriate Congressional leaders relative to the allotment of [REDACTED] of Kersten amendment funds for resettlement purposes.